

Metropolitan Police Service

Commendation

On 18th January 2006

at New Scotland Yard

Detective Inspector David Thompson

was commended by the Assistant Commissioner for professionalism, leadership and detective ability in a complex and high profile investigation into the theft of £2.6 million resulting in the conviction of 5 suspects who received custodial sentences.

A handwritten signature in red ink, appearing to read 'Mans'.

Assistant Commissioner